

BATTLE'S OVER

A NATION'S TRIBUTE

11TH NOVEMBER 2018

100 YEARS OF REMEMBRANCE

BARTON-LE-CLAY ARMISTICE 100

In addition to the morning Remembrance Sunday services the Parish Council is pleased to be taking part in the National Commemoration of the end of WW1 'Battles Over, A Nations Tribute' on Sunday 11th November 2018.

The event will begin with an exhibition from Barton Historical Group on WW1 and Barton's fallen in the Church Hall. Light refreshments will also be served followed by the ceremony in St Nicholas Church Garden

- 17.30 Exhibition on WW1 and refreshments in the Church Hall
- 18.45 Short Act of Remembrance
- 18.55 The Last Post
- 19.00 WW1 Beacons of Light
- 19.05 Ringling Out of Peace

Please bring a torch. Please note there will be limited parking available for Disabled Vehicles Only at St Nicholas Church

For more details please contact:

Barton-le-Clay Parish Council, 1 Windsor Parade, Windsor Road, Barton-le-Clay.
Telephone: 01582 883990 or Email: theparishclerk@bartonleclay.co.uk

